Veteran Investigator Matt Graeber Interviews Emma Woods, Part III

M.G. You mentioned an abductee named Brian Reed (a pseudonym). Apparently, both he and his mother were research subjects of Dr. Jacobs and were mentioned in his book "The Threat". It seems Brian has recently appeared at an online UFO/Paranormal radio program with some rather disturbing recollections concerning his research experiences with Dr. Jacobs, can you tell us a bit about that?

Reply

E.W. Brian Reed is a young man who Dr. Jacobs took on as a research subject in early 2007. His mother was a long time research subject of Dr. Jacobs, and her case was included in both of his books about the abduction phenomenon: Secret Life and The Threat. Brian's case was in The Threat in regard to experiences that he had as a young child.

Dr. Jacobs conducted a number of hypnosis sessions with Brian. However, Brian now believes that his hypnotically retrieved memories were largely confabulated.

A complex series of events took place while Brian was Dr. Jacobs' research subject that was similar in some respects to what I went through. The Paratopia show recently interviewed Brian about this:

Paratopia 94: Brian Reed Vindicates Emma Woods
<http://paratopia.net/>

Brian and I have a difference of opinion on Dr. Jacobs' motivations.

Brian believes that Dr. Jacobs is a well-meaning person who became too involved with his research subjects, that as a consequence he was manipulated by a research subject of his (known by the pseudonym "Elizabeth Smith") who Brian and I both think is a hoaxer, and that this led to his becoming paranoid, and going off the rails.

I used to think similarly to Brian. However, I have come to believe that Dr. Jacobs is consciously aware of what he is doing. In my opinion, Dr. Jacobs is an unethical researcher who uses his research subjects for his own personal aggrandizement and gratification.

I think that it was courageous of Brian to speak out in public. This is especially so as he knew what had happened to me for doing so.

It is my hope that as the reality of Dr. Jacobs' work becomes known, that it will lead to changes in UFO research for the better. Hopefully experiencers in the future will not have to go through the kinds of difficulties that Brian and I did.

M.G. I am wondering many things about you and your situation since the interview process began. Some of the things are personal and some are sexual in nature. I guess the abduction phenomenon as it is presently portrayed in the saucer literature leaves little choice on the matter so here goes. Did you ever discuss with Dr. Jacobs

E.W. I have had a number of miscarriages that had some unusual aspects, and I had two babies who were both born prematurely and who died at birth. I had ongoing gynecological problems, and I eventually had a hysterectomy at a fairly young age. Dr. Jacobs told me that he thought that my gynecological and obstetric problems were related to the abduction phenomenon. He said that this was common with female "abductees". I accepted this at the time that he told me, but I now have an open mind about it.

I have some fragmentary conscious memories of non-human beings performing gynecological procedures on me. I do not know what they mean, and I will probably never know.

During my hypnosis sessions with Dr. Jacobs I recalled "aliens" performing gynecological procedures on me. I think that these "memories" were almost certainly confabulated following his suggestion. He told me that "aliens" routinely removed eggs from human women, mixed them with "alien/hybrid" DNA, and then implanted the "hybrid" embryos into women, before removing them again a few weeks later.

During 2004 I took monthly pregnancy tests in order to test the theory that "aliens" are using abductees in a breeding program, including women who have had hysterectomies. Dr. Jacobs suggested that I do this, saying that he thought that the results would be interesting, whether they were positive or negative. All of the pregnancy tests that I took were negative.

Dr. Jacobs talked to me during my hypnosis sessions about "sperm collection" procedures. He said that aliens forced abductees to participate in them. He told me that during these procedures I would be forced to engage in sexual acts with human male abductees, and that just before the men ejaculated the aliens would pull them away and take their sperm. He told me that sometimes the aliens made you get on top of the man, or they put the man on top of you, or you were forced to stimulate them orally or manually. I remembered quite a few of these procedures, although I now think that they are false memories.

Dr. Jacobs did not say anything to me about using condoms as protection from STD or HIV exposure. However, he did say that the aliens did not want anyone to have anything like that as it would interfere with their breeding program, and that they would probably take care of it if it happened.

At times I have seen objects in the sky that did not look like conventional aircraft. I have had some unusual experiences in association with them, including fragmentary memories of being in strange environments that I do not understand. Dr. Jacobs routinely took this to mean that I was abducted into alien spacecraft. Although I accepted that explanation at the time, and I still think that it is possible, I think that there could be other explanations for it as well. I have come to believe that the cause of the phenomenon is possibly very complex, and that humans may not even be able to fully comprehend it.

I am publishing all of my research on my own website free of charge. I have never made any money from my experiences. I am doing it because I think that there is a real phenomenon causing these experiences that we do not understand yet, and that by studying it we can learn more about it.

I did not record any of my hypnosis sessions myself. Dr. Jacobs recorded all of them, and he sent me copies of the tapes.

I have the original documents that Dr. Jacobs and I signed prior to his conducting hypnosis with me. They cite Temple University in the text, but they do not have the university logo on them.

M.G. In your earlier interview statements you speak of an ex-therapist a couple times and mention you were diagnosed as being "Psychologically Normal." My question is, are you still in therapy? Or did you stop visiting a therapist after you were diagnosed?

Reply

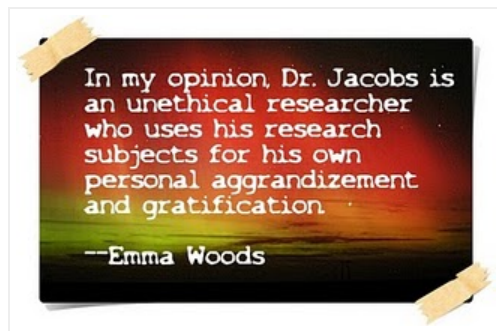

E.W. I still see a therapist. My therapist is supporting me in regard to the actions that I am taking in making Dr. Jacobs' abuse of me as his research subject known as a matter of public interest.

M.G. This not a question but a request and thank you for granting me the opportunity to interview you. Now, it is your turn to write a rebuttal to what Dr. Jacobs has posted about you at his web site, simply discuss your present-day feelings about your paranormal experiences or, perhaps write an "Open Letter" to UFOlogists/Experiencers/Skeptics ... the subject choice is yours to make. Regards, Matt

E.W. Dr. Jacobs has posted an extremely defamatory statement about me on his website, in which he attempts to falsely damage my personal reputation, in my opinion, to try to stop people from listening to what I have made public about his actions as a researcher.

To go into detail about Dr. Jacobs' statement is beyond the scope of this interview. However, to give readers an example of it, he tries to justify implanting the hypnotic suggestions in my mind that I had Multiple Personality Disorder by listing a series of precipitating events in October 2006 (all these events are either outright lies or distortions of what actually occurred). He claims that he then "thought long and hard" about what to do, and came up with the idea of the MPD tactic (the fact that he would even attempt to justify such an abhorrent act is in itself a serious warning indicator about his lack of ethics).

However, Dr. Jacobs had actually put the hypnotic suggestions in my mind that I had MPD in late June 2006, several months before the alleged precipitating events in October 2006. In other words, his "explanation" for why he carried out the MPD tactic on me is a complete fabrication.

I have been saddened by the response of Dr. Jacobs' close friend and abduction research colleague, Budd Hopkins, to what occurred. He has publicly defended Dr. Jacobs' actions, and assisted him in defaming me. In addition, he sent me an, in my opinion, hysterical abusive letter in which he tried to bully and guilt-trip me into not speaking publicly about it. In his letter he made an analogy between my actions and George Bush's invasion of Iraq causing the deaths of thousands of people.

It is my hope that the UFO community as a whole takes a different approach to Mr. Hopkins, and examines what has occurred. I believe that this is happening already. For example, veteran researcher Ray Fowler made a public statement in which he said:

"It reminds me of Toto pulling back the curtain to expose the self-proclaimed Wizard of Oz if Emma is being truthful. If true, I wonder how many other Emma's are out there being influenced by someone who is [sic] just started to take hypnosis lessons. Her story, if true undermines the validity of Jacob's research and conclusions. ... Rather than conforming to the so-called party line critics should at least be open to the possibility that Emma is telling the truth and be willing to examine both sides of the question objectively. ... Thus far (based on the contents of the article) I am disappointed in the way Jacobs and reportedly how Hopkins have reacted."

<http://ufomagazine.squarespace.com/ufo-magazine/2010/11/2/comment-from-raymond-fowler-on-the-emma-woods-article.html>

There are important issues at stake regarding the protection of experiencers as human research subjects. My own view is that the use of hypnosis as a memory retrieval tool in this research should be re-evaluated, as it can lead to distressing false memories that are not able to be undone once they are created. In addition, the fact that it is not possible to distinguish between what are real or false hypnotic memories makes the use of hypnosis problematic in terms of obtaining data that is known to be reliable.

I sincerely hope that what I went through as Dr. Jacobs' research subject, and what other research subjects of his have gone through, can lead to lasting changes for the better in UFO research.

Thank you Mr. Graeber for your personal kindness to me, as well as for your interest in the situation and for interviewing me about it. Although I know that you are a skeptic, and that you have a different view of the phenomenon than I do, I have always felt like you care about the welfare of experiencers as research subjects in this field. That means a lot to me. It is much appreciated.

About Matt Graeber

Matt Graeber founded the UFO Report and Information Center in 1972. UFORIC handled reports passed on to them by two major newspapers, several police departments, one military and two civilian air facilities, the general public, and technicians at the Fels Planetarium at the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia. UFORIC was a Pro-UFO group. One of their members was affiliated with APRO. They were not skeptics.

UFORIC was a very small group of five individuals and investigated cases in the Tri-State Areas of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. They had very few consultants and had developed a computerized six-page spreadsheet approach to the enigma. They found no spikes in these data which would indicate a "trend" which was mysterious or out-of-the-norm in character.

"Actually, this 'non-trend' was noticed in early 1973," Mr. Graeber said in an email, "and did not change for the next seven years. About that time, the abduction phase (or malaise) of UFOlogy really took root. Some members became uneasy with things, as did I."

Mr. Graeber has been a regular contributor to Magonia and SUNlite, two online publications exploring the UFO/Paranormal field. He is a retired Commercial Artist.

Mr. Graeber has been married to the same girl for 42 years.

Dear Sir,
I have been communicating and exchanging with Mrs. Woods for years and can testify she never behaved in an irresponsible and belligerent way towards anyone, Dr. Jacobs and the persisterous Elizabeth Smith included. I feel she has been the victim of the irresponsibility of "self proclaimed" ufo-experts who have not the requested competence in the field they exerted their "talents" and finally don't even know what they are speaking about.
